Year 4 - Week 2

Week Two
Year 4	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5
Chocolate! This week is all about chocolate. After all that chocolate over Easter, why not spend another week indulging in all things chocolate! When following links online, parents should monitor that children are remaining on that page only and are keeping safe online.	Michael Rosen Chocolate Cake Read the poem: https://www.poemhunter.com/poem/chocolate-cake/ Now watch Michael Rosen perform the poem: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7BxQLITdOOc Which do you prefer? Why? Michael uses onomatopoeia in his poem. Onomatopoeia is when a word imitates the sound of the object or action it refers to, e.g. guzzle. Can you find some examples of onomatopoeia in the poem? Can you think of an action you might put	Charlie and The Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl Read and enjoy 'The Chocolate Room' Section 15 https://archive.org/stream/CharlieAndTheChocolateFactory/Charlie%20and%20the%20Chocolate%20Factory_djvu.txt Alternatively, if you have the book, turn to the chapter – The Chocolate Room. Now, watch the clip. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OMFQtY6655E (Note: PG certificate) Imagine that you are there. Write a descriptive paragraph of what you	How is chocolate made? Using the information from yesterday, can you create your own information page for a magazine all about chocolate? Things you could include: - A heading - An introduction for your page - Subheadings - Images - Captions - A diagram with labels - Bullet points - Fun facts - Your own chocolate recipe! - Some of the new words you learned yesterday.	What is your favourite chocolate bar? Do you have more than one favourite? If you could create your dream chocolate bar what would it be like? What would be in it? What would it be called? On a sheet, design your own chocolate bar and wrapper. Think about: What flavour will it be? Will it be hard or soft? Will it have anything in it? (Raisins, popping candy, nougat, apricots, biscuit, etc.) What colours will you use in the wrapper? What is the name of your bar?
