Task 2

After watching, write down what an 'everyday-hero' means to you.

Task 3

Think about someone you consider to be an 'everyday hero' during this current time in lockdown. This could be:

- someone you know personally, such as a family member, friend or teacher
- someone you have seen on the news, such as Captain Tom Moore – watch this Newsround clip to find out more:

a whole team of people, such as people working in your local hospital.

Once you have selected your everyday hero, write a letter to say thank-you to them personally.

When writing your letter, make sure you include the following:

- An opening greeting
- An initial sentence/paragraph outlining why you are writing to this person / people
- Additional paragraphs giving reasons as to why they are your everyday hero
- A concluding paragraph – summarising your reasons / reiterating your thanks
- A suitable sign off – this will be different depending on who you are writing your letter to.

Once you have written your letter – consider sending it to the person via post. You may even get a reply!
